THE HUMANE SOCIETY

Bringing People & Pets Together

At the Seattle Humane Society, it's our mission to bring people and pets together, and keep them together. We save the lives of thousands of abandoned, stray and surrendered pets in our community every year and find loving homes for every healthy and adoptable animal regardless of age, breed, or beauty.

Seattle Humane Society also has various programs to ensure that our community never has to choose between caring for their pet and caring for themselves. Our Pet Food Bank allows low-income individuals in our community to continue to care for their pets and spend their limited resources on other basic necessities. Thanks to donations from caring people like you, our Pet Food Bank serves more than 930 low-income and senior clients every month. That's a monthly average of 10,387 pounds of pet food distributed to 1,337 pets in need. Our volunteers pack, load and deliver canned and dry pet food to local senior centers, low-income housing complexes, food banks and individual homes.

PET FOOD DRIVE DURING THE SHOW ON SUNDAY – BRING YOUR CAT AND DOG FOOD DONATIONS TO THEIR BOOTH. Donate canned or dry pet food to the Seattle Humane Society today and help us continue to keep people and pets together in our community!

Learn more about the Seattle Humane Society at seattlehumane.org, (425) 641-0080, or come visit us in person at 13212 SE Eastgate Way in Bellevue.
